

Best Practices for a Job Search

- Take a less conventional approach
- Know what you're willing to negotiate
- Do your homework
- Identify skill sets and potential industries
- Utilize appropriate resources
- Network

Social Networking

- Where to Start?
 - LinkedIn: Allows members to search for jobs posted by employers and build lists of contacts
 - Facebook: Another way to search for jobs and network professionally
 - Twitter: A fast paced social networking and micro-blogging service
 - Google+: Google's social networking site that's gaining popularity as a career networking and job-searching tool

How to be Aggressive During a Timid Job Market

- Two heads are better than one
 - Work with a professional recruiter
- Work the resume
 - A strong document can push you above the rest
- Keep your head up

Tips for a Successful Interview

- Research the Company
- Be Prepared
- End on a Good Note
- Thank You Notes are Important

Thank you!

Brian Jochim
Sr. Account Executive
Aerotek Scientific, LLC
781.356.6907
bjochim@aerotek.com

