Serving All of New England

PROGRAM SPONSORS:

PROGRAM SUMMARY:

Discussion of best practices, important considerations and the unique challenges of building flexibility into your cold storage solutions, including reach-ins, walk-ins and drive-ins.

We will illustrate incorporating multiple redundancies, planning resourcefully for constant changing directives, and the importance of assessing and planning for unique current and future challenges.

SPEAKERS:

John Masiello, Co-Founder and Executive Vice President, Masy BioServices

John Masiello is the co-founder and Executive Vice President of Masy BioServices with over 30 years of experience in Validation, Calibration and cGMP best practices. His wide ranging expertise and innovative thinking has kept Masy BioServices raising the bar for excellence in BioPharma services. John holds a degree in Engineering from Wentworth Institute, and is a member of PDA and ISPE. In his free time John volunteers as a member of the local Economic Development Advisory Committee, and enjoys fostering the next generation of STEM professionals as a community educator.

Educated at Wentworth Institute in Boston, MA with a degree in Electrical Engineering, he is a lifelong resident of Massachusetts. He is a member of several professional organizations such as the International Society of Pharmaceutical Engineers (ISPE), Instrument Society of America (ISA) and National Conference of Standards Laboratories (NCSL). John volunteers in his hometown on the Economic Development Advisory Committee (EDAC) whose purpose is to stimulate business growth in the area.

Christopher Masiello, Director of Facilities, Masy BioServices

Christopher Masiello has been the Director of Facilities at Masy BioServices for four years. Prior to this position, Christopher was Masy's Biorepository Manager for four years and a Validation Project Lead for 12 years. He enjoys spending time with his family, hiking, volunteering as an Assistant Scout Master with the Boy Scouts, and coaching multiple basketball teams.
