Advertising & Sponsorship Prospectus

Support our second virtual conference!

Sponsorship & virtual advertising opportunities are now open and are expected to sell out! Do not delay if interested in participating!

Thank you for considering a sponsorship at the ISPE Boston Area Chapter Virtual Spring Conference! This will be the Chapter's second virtual conference and it will take place from April 19-23, 2021.

The ISPE Boston Area Chapter is pleased to present a virtual Spring Conference program focused on lessons learned and best practices. The topics covered in this conference will delve into the key ideas, strategies and implementation processes that attendees can utilize in order to achieve the greatest value at their own facilities. Attendees will receive access to ondemand webinar sessions – watchable on their own schedules – then, attendees will join us for live Q+A sessions with our program speakers to dive deeper into the subject matter.

This virtual program will attract attendees from a wide variety of industry personas including Process & Automation Engineers, Quality Assurance, and Operations Professionals. Individuals or organizations involved in life sciences will attend as it will provide insights into new ways of thinking about existing challenges in life science manufacturing. The expert assembly of speakers shall provide new approaches to streamlining manufacturing processes and cost savings.

We have carefully prepared a list of opportunities to provide your company with maximum exposure both in pre-conference marketing and online during the conference. We look forward to developing our relationship, and remember to register now to take advantage of the most influential sponsorships!

OPPORTUNITIES

Note: all sponsors receive an online directory listing in the Sponsors section of the Spring Conference Homebase event platform and have the ability to chat with attendees interested in your company.

SPONSORSHIP AVAILABLE PRICE 1 $1,000

• Platinum Conference Sponsor

As the Platinum Conference sponsor, you'll receive the most visibility on this event, with your logo listed on the marketing flyer/brochure, marketing eblasts, and event website. You'll also be listed as the platinum conference sponsor on (2) social media posts promoting the event (via Facebook, LinkedIn, and/or Twitter). Additionally, you may provide either a pre-recorded or live* webinar that we will share on the conference "Sponsored Education" section. *Note that live webinars cannot conflict with ISPE Spring Conference webinar showtimes. You may also provide a short, 60-second video describing your company, what you do, etc. to be posted on the Spring Conference Homebase website video library. Lastly, you'll be thanked as the Platinum conference sponsor on every live Q&A webinar session as well as in any event summary blog posts.

• Gold Track Sponsor

As a Gold Track sponsor, you'll pick one of the following educational tracks to sponsor: Automation, CQV, or Design. There are 3 educational sessions per track and each session will be comprised of an on-demand webinar and a live Q&A discussion over Zoom. You will be listed as the track sponsor with your company logo in the marketing flyer/brochure, marketing eblast promoting that track, and on the event website. You'll also be listed as a gold track sponsor on (1) social media post promoting the track (via Facebook, LinkedIn, and/or Twitter). Lastly, you will be thanked as the gold track sponsor during your track's live Q+A sessions as well as in any event summary blog posts.

Silver General Sponsor

As a general Spring Conference sponsor, you'll receive a company listing in the sponsors directory of the event Homebase platform, where you will be able to chat with any attendees interested in your company directly on the event platform. You will also be listed in the event flyer/brochure as a sponsor of the virtual Spring Conference, listed on the event page on the website, and thanked as a silver general sponsor in any event summary blog posts.

Sponsored Education Spot 5

Purchase a sponsored education spot and you can either host a live webinar or provide a pre-recorded video about your services, company research, or anything else! Your session will be hosted on our event platform in the "Sponsored Education" section and will be open for any attendees to view/attend. Sponsoring company is also welcome to provide a blog post about their educational session that will provide information about the webinar and this will be shared with our full list of blog subscribers.
