

WIP ISPE Boston, Women in Bio, and Women Accelerators are proud to co-sponsor a virtual panel with Joanne Kamens, Jayne Mattson, and Juliet Williams moderated by Caren Jenkins. Panelists will share their career stories and tips on how you can be more intentional about your career. Join us for a night of learning and fun! ALL ARE WELCOME!

PROGRAM SUMMARY:

This program is focused on strengthening your intentions for your career. Connect with other women leaders in the biotech industry while learning important takeaways about actively managing your career and brand. The past year has challenged adaptability, flexibility, and resilience skills in completely new ways. With continual changes to the workforce, it can be overwhelming to prioritize personal needs for your professional path.

Join Women In Pharma, Women In Bio, and Women Accelerators for a facilitated discussion on ways you can set intentions that will help you balance the organization's needs and your career needs as well!
